

1. Rider - Someone approaching. Incoming news. A message. Good news. To understand the nature of the message read the surrounding cards. For example with Clover, it could indicate lucky ticket or news of a win.

2. Clover - Generally a good omen, the clover indicates "luck". Far away from the querent, the luck is diminished.

3. The Ship - Journey over water. Travel. Things coming from a distance. Also, moving away from a person or event. Business opportunity from abroad.

4. The House - Home. Family. Tradition. Safety. Surrounded by bad cards, the card could indicate trouble from a neighbor or someone nearby.

5. The Tree - This card usually indicates something to do with health. Roots. Also a deep rooted and long standing situation or connection. If the card is further away from the querent, you should pay attention to your health.

6. Clouds - Lack of clarity. Confusion. The inability to see a situation clearly. Examine where the querent is in relation to the clouds. If the bright clouds are near the significator it's a good omen for future plans and indicates clarity of judgement. However if the grey clouds are ahead of the client this could signal troubled times ahead and entering into an unpleasant situation.

7. Snake - Not a good omen when describing people and events. Seduction. Temptation. Possible treachery. Traitor. Bad luck. The closer this card is to the significator the more dangerous this card is. Deception.

8. The Coffin - Signifies endings and illness. The closer this card is to the significator, the stronger the omen.

9. Bouquet - Invitation. Gift. Happiness. Very positive card. Could signify engagement. The closer the card, the stronger the influence.

10. Scythe - Pain. Cutting. Unexpected problem. Danger.

11. Whip - Quarrels. Relationship problems. Rocky friendships. Domestic troubles. Conflicts. The nearer the card to the querent, the chances are more likely for troubles and arguments.

12. The Birds - Gossip. Chatting. Difficulties. Anxiety. When far away it may indicate gossip in a negative sense.

13. Child - Innocence. Child. The beginning of something new. A new start.

14. The Fox - Deception. Cunning. This is another card that if close to the significator indicates great danger. A woman. Could be a female enemy.

15. The Bear - Authority. Strong personality. I read this card as a man. Power. Influence.

16. The Stars - Hopes. Dreams. Generally good fortune. In presence of evil cards suggests bad coincidences or unfortunate events.

17. Stork - Change of residence. Birth. Whatever is described by the Stork indicates a change in that area. The further the Stork is from the querent card the less likely the change is to take place.

18. The Dog - True friendship. Fidelity. Trusted companion. The further away from the client the card is the less reliable the friendship.

19. The Tower - Solitude. A large building. Being alone. Isolation. It can represent a "long standing" issue, for example, when beside a ring it may indicate a strong, long lasting relationship, but in the context of a grudge, this could indicate a long bitter rivalry

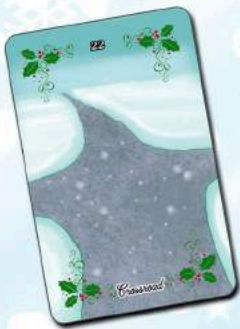

20. The Garden -Public place. Social gathering. Party. Place where people meet.

21. The Mountain -Obstacle. Block. Could warn of a formidable enemy.

22. The Road- A decision needs to be made. A choice. If this card is further away from the Querent, it may indicate that you need to consider a different path.

23. The mice or the rat - Illness. Loss. Small theft. Erosion. The idea is of "gnawing" and gradual loss. If the card is very far away from the Querent, it may suggest that the loss is permanent.

24. The Heart - Love. Feelings. Strong emotion. Fondness. Romance.

25. The Ring - To the right of the significator suggests a happy marriage. To the left of the significator indicates broken engagement and separation.

26. The Book- Secrets. Documents. The closer the card is to the significator the more guarded the secret is.

27. The Letter- Written communication. Good news from far away. If surrounded by negative cards, this may indicate delayed or bad news.

28. The man - Male significator or man close to the querent.

29. The woman - Female querent or woman important to the questioner.

30. The Lily - Sexuality. Virtue. Family. If this card appears below the Querent card, it suggests a person of questionable integrity.

31. The Sun - Happiness. Bright future. Good prospects. When far from the Querent, it indicates there may be some disappointment.

32. The Moon - Artistic talent. Dreams. Intuition. Recognition. When far away this card suggests grief and displeasure.

33. The Key- Destiny. Fate. Yes in answer to a question. If far away, the card indicates disappointment.

34. The Fish - Finances. Money. Business. Wealth. Big financial opportunity. When the card is far away this card suggests difficulty in completing new tasks.

35. The Anchor - Stability. Commitment. Success in business and love. When far away this card indicates change of mind or instability.

36. The Cross - Troubles. Grief. Bad omen.

READING THE CARDS

Lenormand cards are meant to be read in context with each other. For example The Sun (31) + The Fish (34) as a pair would indicate happiness in regard to finances or business. or Rider (1) + Scythe (10) could indicate an accident or unexpected news which could be disturbing. In that context you would have to read the card that follows to see what happens as a result.

